Interesting Proceedings of the National Eclectic Medical Associaton Yesterday-List of Colleges Recognized by the Association-Other Matters.

CLEVELAND, June 19 .- The national eclecmedical association was called to order by r. John King, of Cincinnati, president of the association, at ten o'clock this morning. Rev. T. M. House offered prayer. Prof. M. Scudder, of Cincinnati, introduced the fol-owing reso Resolved, That this association recognizes the following eclectic colleges as being in good standing and recommend that they re-ceive the support of the profession: The Ecectic medical institute, of Cincinnati; American medical college, of St. Louis; Eclectic medical college, of New York; Bennett med-ical college, of Chicago; United States med-ical college, of New York.

Resolved, That we approve the courses of instruction adopted, and especially recommend to students a grade course of three ears, or attendance upon three or more urses of lectures. The reading of these resolutions brought a food of discussion, which continued for a considerable length of time. The following substitute was offered by Dr. M'Masters, of Michigan: Resolved, That medical colleges in good at least two full terms of instruction of ; least five months duration, with an intervaof five months, the last of which shall have been in the college conferring the degree. Dr. M'Masters, the gentleman who offered the substitute, then moved that it be laid on the table for further consideration, but the notion, on being put to a ballot, was lost by a vote of—ayes, 30; nays, 28.

The original resolution offered by Prof Scudder, of Cincinnati, was then voted on and carried unanimously. Further discussion was indulged in and the substitute of Dr. M'Masters voted on and The committee on credentials presented a report asking that Drs. J. D. Keegan, of Michigan, and G. D.
